... 1. [] and Granny had a long discussion of the VERONAL Project with GRILLATKEY and GRANDOPERA. From this discussion it became clear that the group with which BARBITAL came into contact in Poland is a small group of people in Rybnik who feel opposed to the present Polish Government, and are willing to accept American direction and to supply intelligence information to the Americans. From interrogation of the contact whom BARBITAL brought out from Poland, it is clear that the group is not at present in contact with other intelligence agencies working in Poland nor is it a part of other resistance groups, such as the NSZ. It is the belief of Rollins and Granny that, even though this group is not a well organized one, there are many possibilities to be considered. ...
